The origins of the castle date back to the 1200s, but there are many examples of settlements dating back to Roman times. Starting from the sixteenth century, illustrious families took turns in the property of Spessa: first the Dorimbergo, then the Rassauer and the Della Torre Valsassina family who, even boasting a descent from Charlemagne, owned it for more than three hundred years.

Over the centuries, distinguished personalities have stayed here, such as Lorenzo Da Ponte and Emanuele Filiberto d'Aosta, while in 1773 Giacomo Casanova, the famous writer and adventurer was hosted there. In 1987 the Castello di Spessa, together with its own vineyards, was bought by the Pali family, becoming the heart of a splendid Wine Resort.
